Dear Mr. Williams:

We at Gourmet are anxious to receive correspondence from you from time to time. If your comments, suggestions, or criticisms are pertinent to the subject of food, we shall be glad to include in future our magazine with us.

If you would like to be on our list, or have your name printed in the pages of GOURMET magazine, please send your permission, or wish to have it printed your comments and we will send you a complimentary copy of the issue in which your statement is published. We shall be glad to do so.

Thank you for your interest and cooperation. With very best wishes,

Sincerely,

Walter Dill Scott
The Editor
